“Love”

I don't know what I would do without you;

You are the reason for my happiness.

Although love is dangerous,

By trying to make someone jealous.

But that won't work on me anymore,

So what are you waiting for?

Nowadays all I do is pray for,

That one day you

Will not be in my head anymore,

That I'll find my happiness.

That you won't try to make me jealous.

I guess love is dangerous.

You were dangerous,

What was everything for?

Trying to make me jealous,

I tried to tell you.
That you didn't bring me happiness,
You weren't the same anymore.

You were never there anymore,
I should've seen that you were dangerous.

I tried to be your happiness,
But what was all the hope for?
Just for you to make me jealous,
I should have left you.

Have fun trying to make me jealous!

That won't affect me anymore.

Everything I did for you,
Just for you to be dangerous.

What was it all for?

There's no happiness.

But one day I will have happiness,

I won't be jealous.

That's all I can hope for,
But honestly who knows anymore.

For love is dangerous,

With a girl like you.

What was it all for? All I tried to do was be your happiness.

A girl like you shouldn't try to make me jealous.

At least I won't feel the pain anymore. Love is dangerous.
