“My Little Half”

No matter what, you'll always have me here.

I truly hope that you know that by now.

I'm here even if we are far or near.

Even if it is nighttime, please don't fear.

You can be annoying, but anyhow,

You are so cute and innocent like deer.

Call my name and for you I will appear.

After everything, I still love thou.

No matter what, you'll always have me here.

It makes me sad how you grow every year.

You're growing up fast and I just think, wow!

I care for you and I'm being sincere.

I want you to know that my love is clear,

So you're not as gullible as a cow.

Know I'm here, I'll never disappear.

We grow older as the time flies each year,

But remember as I tell you this now,

No matter what, you'll always have me here.

I'm here even if we're far or near.
